RE-ELECTION OF WILSON IS INDICATED BY TREND IN 2 DOUBTFUL STATES

as he needs only thirteen votes to give him the 266 necessary.

Since early this morning Hughes pluralities all over the country have been cut down. Kansas swung into the Democratic column shortly before noon.

New Mexico May Need Recount.

By United Press
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 8.—The contest in this state for three electors is so close today that it may take an official recount to decide. Democratic leaders are claiming the state for Wilson by from 1,000 to 3,000. The Republicans do not concede this.

Minnesota Rural Vote Is Wilson's.

By United Press
ST. PAUL, Nov. 8.—In 691 precincts out of 3,024, Wilson is leading by 8,033 votes. The total is 42,172 for Wilson and 34,139 for Hughes. In eleven precincts Wilson gained 815 net. These were rural precincts.

Hughes Leads in New Hampshire.

By United Press
CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 8.—With only 27 precincts to be heard from the Democratic State Committee admits Hughes is leading the state by 400. It was stated a recount will be demanded.

Wilson Leads in 'Frisco.

By United Press
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 8.—Late returns today indicate that Wilson will carry San Francisco county with a lead of from 15,000 to 17,000. The Woodrow Wilson Independent League announced that the latest reports indicated that Wilson was steadily gaining over the state.

By United Press
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Democratic National Chairman McCormack today disputed the Republican claims to Minnesota, West Virginia, New Hampshire, and California for Hughes.

He said he had just received a telegram from the state chairman, that the state was for Wilson.

According to the national chairman, West Virginia is still going Democratic.

Late reports received at the national headquarters from California stated that, while the vote was very close, Wilson is leading. Late news from New Hampshire is that the vote will be extremely close.

Says W. Va., Is For Wilson.

By United Press
ASBURY PARK, N. Y., Nov. 8.—United States Senator Chilton wired President Wilson today from West Virginia that the state had gone for him.

Hughes Leads in Wisconsin.

By United Press
MADISON, Wis., Nov. 8.—The United Press received late today from the northern tier of Wisconsin counties, where the total vote is not expected to be known for several days, indications that Hughes will add to his plurality, although the Democrats claim these counties. Returns thus far from six of these counties give Wilson 772 and Hughes, 1,305. Reports for the Balsam Lake district are that Hughes has a plurality of 100 in twenty precincts in Polk County.

PENSION AND LAND BANK WIN IN BOONE

President Hill Goes East.

President A. Ross Hill and Dean Walter Miller of the Graduate School left yesterday for Worcester, Mass., where they will attend a meeting of the Association of American Universities. The convention will open Thursday at Clark University and lasts through Saturday.

SISTERS TO WED HERE

The Misses Carter Will Marry H. S. Dailey and W. N. Dinwiddie Tonight.

The double wedding of Miss Nelle Mae Carter and Herley Smith Dailey, and Miss Margaret Elizabeth Carter and Walter Norris Dinwiddie will take place at 8 o'clock tonight at "Ormehurst," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joel W. Carter, the Misses Carter's parents. The Rev. M. A. Hart will officiate.

The attendants at the wedding will be Miss Constance Latshaw of Kansas City and Miss Mabel Smith of Fulton. Miss Enid Locke of Columbia will sing "Because" and "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" before the bridal party appears. During the ceremony a quartet of stringed instruments, directed by George Venable, will play the march from Lohengrin and the Venetian Love Song.

Both brides will wear gowns of white satin and georgette crepe. The attendants will wear pink taffeta.

The ceremony will take place in the music room, which will be decorated with palms and white chrysanthemums. The dining room, in which the wedding reception will be held, is to be decorated in yellow, chrysanthemums being used again.

The out-of-town guests are Miss Enid Locke of Kansas City, Mrs. J. C. Jadwin of New York, formerly chaperon at the Alpha Phi house, Miss Lillian and Milton Dally of Brunswick, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Flynn, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Allen, and Mrs. C. B. Curtis of St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Angel and Mr. and Mrs. W. Haines of Rochester and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Canale and Miss Mary Canale of Fayette.

The local chapter of the Alpha Phi sorority, of which the Carter sisters are members, will attend. Miss Latshaw and Miss Wells are also members of the Alpha Phi sorority.

All four of the persons parties in the double wedding are graduates of the University. Both young ladies received their degrees in 1912; Mr. Dailey and Mr. Dinwiddie are both graduates from the School of Law. After completing his law course Mr. Dailey practiced law in Columbia until last year, when he became agent for the St. Louis branch of a life insurance company.

Mr. Dinwiddie has also practiced law in Columbia. He was twice elected city attorney and was re-elected prosecuting attorney of Boone County yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dailey will make their home in St. Louis. Mr. and Mrs. Dinwiddie will live on Hinkson avenue in Columbia.

MARTHA HERE SATURDAY NIGHT

Boston English Opera Company to Bring Orchestra and Scenery.

The Boston English Opera Company will play the comic opera Martha at the Columbia Theater Saturday night. The company brings its own symphony orchestra of sixteen pieces and its own scenery.

Joseph F. Sheehan will sing the role of Lionel. The other artists include Mirth Carmen, Elaine DeSelle, Harold J. Geis and Phil Fein. Critics who have seen this company play Martha pronounce it the prettiest and most humorous of all the English operas.

Lecture by Dean James.

The second of the series of faculty lectures on the general topic of "The College Student and His Life Work" will be given by Dean Eldon R. James of the School of Law, Thursday, November 16. Dean James' subject will be "The Lawyer and His Opportunity."
